

New to Germany? New to Dortmund? Lots of questions?

Multikulturelles
Forum e.V.

The Multicultural Forum is a state-independent association that works for equal opportunities and involvement of all people.

We provide advice on various topics and life situations, offer further education and help people plan their future and claim their rights. Most of our services are free of charge.

Here you will find some information, tips and orientation on topics such as housing, health, family or careers, available in English.

Our services in Dortmund:

Counselling for refugees

German language courses

Support in the search for work and training

Open meeting place for immigrants

Counselling on the topic of islamism
